

that, in selecting the names of persons qualified to act as jurors for the ensuing term of the circuit court, we will not therein be influenced by fear, favor, partiality or prejudice, and that we will not select any person for that purpose, who in our judgment will be influenced in determining any of the matters which shall come before him as a juror, by hatred, malice or ill will, fear, favor or affection, or by any partiality whatever, nor any person who in our opinion or to our knowledge, may have solicited to be returned on said list, or may have been recommended or requested to be so returned by any other person, so help us God; a certificate by said justice of the peace of said oath having been taken and subscribed before him, to be returned with said list to the clerk of the circuit court;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Creswell proposed the following:

Add at the end of 87th line the following: "but if at any time during the session of the court it shall appear that there are more jurors in attendance than are necessary for the trial of causes and for the purposes of justice, it shall be the duty of the said court to discharge forthwith from further attendance such unnecessary jurors; and the court shall designate by name, jurors who shall be so discharged;"

Which was rejected.

Mr. Donaldson proposed the following:

Strike out the word "sixty" in the 32d, 37th, 51st, 54th lines of the 1st section, and insert in lieu thereof in said lines the words "forty-eight;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Bond proposed the following:

Strike out all after the word "criminal" in line 95 to the end of line 97;

Which was rejected.

Mr. Dougherty proposed the following:

"Section 5. Be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall affect the mode and manner of selecting jurors as now prescribed by law, in the counties of Somerset, Queen Anne's, Carroll, St. Mary's, Worcester, Baltimore, Kent, Charles and Caroline;

Which was rejected.

Mr. Creswell proposed the following amendment:

"Strike out all after the 97th line;"

Pending which,

On motion of Mr. Mathews,
The House adjourned.
